

Application for Intermission of Studies from Foundation Year

As an enrolled student at Foundation Year you may wish to apply to take a period of leave from your enrolled course. Intermission is granted for one year or two consecutive semesters. If intermission is granted for more than 6 months, student must leave Australia for the rest of the duration of their studies.

International Students (student visa holders)

To avoid any administrative delays please ensure you have the relevant supporting documentation. According to government legislation – National Code 2018 - your intermission can be approved on compassionate or compelling grounds only.

You must provide certified copies of documents to support your application eg medical certificates, death certification or a report from a registered psychologist. Financial problems do not constitute compassionate grounds. All documents must be provided in English or translated into English by a registered translation service. The Manager, Student Administration, will decide on your application.

As part of the reporting process for intermission, the Department of Home Affairs (DHA) will be advised.

Fees

You must submit the intermission application before the relevant census date. Please refer to the refund policy for more details. Students are liable for total tuition fees for the semester when intermission is applied for and granted after the census date.

Lodgement of Application

Forms and supporting documents must be presented to the Student Administration. You will be notified in writing of the outcome of your application.

If you change your address during the period of intermission please ensure that Foundation Year Program has your current details at all times. This can be done by amending your address details via the Web Enrolment System (WES): <http://my.monash.edu.au/wes>
