Additional Information

Monash College Enrolment Policy

Students can access the Monash College Enrolment Policy at the following link <https://www.monashcollege.edu.au/about-us/policies-procedures/enrolment-and-progression>

International students who apply for intermission are required to first consult with the Director English Language as the ESOS Act (2000) specifies that intermission will only be approved on exceptional compassionate grounds, e.g. illness or severe personal circumstances. Financial problems do not constitute compassionate grounds.

You should provide original and certified copies of medical certificates, death certificates or supporting documents from a registered psychologist, or other registered bodies. All documents must be provided in English or must include a certified English translation.

English Language Centre must report to the Department of Home Affairs (DHA) any period of intermission sought from your course.

To avoid any administrative delays please ensure you have the relevant supporting documentation with you when seeking advice from English Language Centre and submit relevant documents with your application.

If you change your address during the period of intermission, ensure that English Language Centre has your current details by updating your address via Web Enrolment System (<https://my.monash.edu.au/wes/>).
